Expert Interior Designer, Lorrie Browne, Shares the Best Tips & Tricks

In these money-tight times we could all use a little lift.

For many of us, a dose of decorating is just what the doctor ordered. But how do you give your home a facelift without breaking the bank? Well, as a designer, I know quite a few tricks of the trade. When it comes right down to it, who wouldn't like to save a little cash?

Here's my step-by-step approach:

1. Plan your project by carefully creating a list of what you need and what you want.
2. Don't forget to consider items you already have in your home that can be relocated or repurposed.
3. For the new items, take your time doing research online.
4. Purchase furnishings that are of the best quality that you can afford.

Saving money is not just about spending a small amount of money; it's about spending your money wisely. If you follow these steps, you can complete your project quickly, easily, and within your budget. Just like a designer! Thorough planning will also help you avoid impulse buys. I am going to take you on a tour of your home and point out some easy-breezy fixes that will have you bragging to your friends and keep them wondering how you still have money to spare.

Now, lets get started!
